Sweet Dreams

We often dream of swimming in chocolate or lounging in a chocolaty bath—did we mention we like chocolate? Seattle's own Sweet Beauty totally gets our obsession. The line of chocolate-based (organic and fair-trade chocolate, no less) spa products is a decadent dessert for the senses.

You can get your fix in the form of body scrubs (for the holidays, we love the Candy Cane White Chocolate Scrub with actual peppermint candy pieces), the Melt Milk Chocolate Bath, a body cleanser or chocolate lip balm—a dream come true!
